Happy Pride Month 2019!

Greetings Family,

June has been such an exciting month for me, and for the website! In honor of Pride Month we kicked off the Dope Queer Friay (#DQF) feature series on the Instagram page where we highlight weekly an individual(s) whose work we really admire. In addition, each featured individual(s) answers the question, “Why is what you do important?” so it’s a good way to become familiar with folks who are building the culture, who you might not yet be aware of. The feature goes live every Friday at 5pm ET, so if you aren’t already, be sure to follow the IG page and share with friends.

Another addition to the website that we are proud to introduce is the weekly LGBTQ+ News cycle. Each Wednesday we bring attention to the top news stories impacting our community that you might have missed. Perhaps what is most important is we launched this newsletter to make sure you never miss what's happening on the website, in the community, or with our EIC.
